INCREASINGLY DIVIDED, EVER MORE POLARIZED, AMERICA IS FACING A NATIONAL CRISIS THAT HAS NOT BEEN SEEN SINCE ABRAHAM LINCOLN, REFERENCING THE BOOK OF MATTHEW, DECLARED "A HOUSE DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF CANNOT STAND."

MANY AMERICANS FEEL CIVIL WAR IS POSSIBLE

Views on Civil War Likelihood

- 46% of Americans think a Civil War will happen in the future
- 49% of Republicans and 45% of Democrats think so.

-Data from Zogby Analytics

Other views on America

- 41% of Americans feel alienated by modern America
- 52% of Americans think that American culture is at risk
- Republicans, comprised mostly from White Christians who belong to the authentic American culture that built this nation, versus diverse Democrats comprised of Non-European peoples that dislike White Christian culture, unsurprisingly, strongly disagree on these two poll statements.

-Data from Public Religion Research Institute

"An unrelenting stream of immigration, nonstop, nonstop. Folks like me who were Caucasian, of European descent for the first time in 2017 will be in an absolute minority in the United States of America, absolute minority. Fewer than 50 percent of the people in America from then and on will be White European stock. That's not a bad thing. That's as a source of our strength."

-President Joe Biden

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS, RACIALLY DIVIDED

In the data breakdown of voters in the 2020 Presidential Election, 58% of White voters supported former President Trump, only 12% of Blacks, 34% of Asians, and 32% of Hispanics did. Meanwhile, only 41% of White voters supported Biden, but an overwhelming number of Blacks at 87%, Hispanics at 65%, and Asians at 61% did.

DIVIDED ON MORE THAN RACE

These differences in diversity between the racial and religious groups that affiliate with, or support the Republican and Democratic parties, translates into more than just mere differences in opinion, but sharp contrasts in morality and culture. This means that we increasingly share less in common with the political opposition, as they are in fact our moral opposition.

MORAL DIVISIONS

Religion

73% of Republicans are completely certain in God's existence, only 55% of Democrats are, but this also includes a majority of individuals from non-Christian faiths like Islam or Hinduism.

-Data from Pew Research Center

Abortion

On the issue of Abortion, 70% of Republicans are Pro-Life, in contrast, 88% of Democrats are Pro-Choice.

-Data from a Gallup Poll

Self-Defense, or Gun Rights

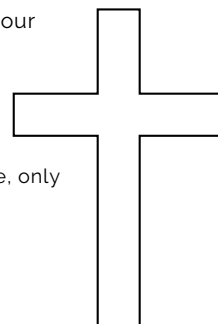

45% of White Americans think there should be more gun laws, while 75% of Blacks, 72% of Asians, and 65% of Hispanics support more gun laws. An extremely racially divided issue.

-Data from Pew Research Center

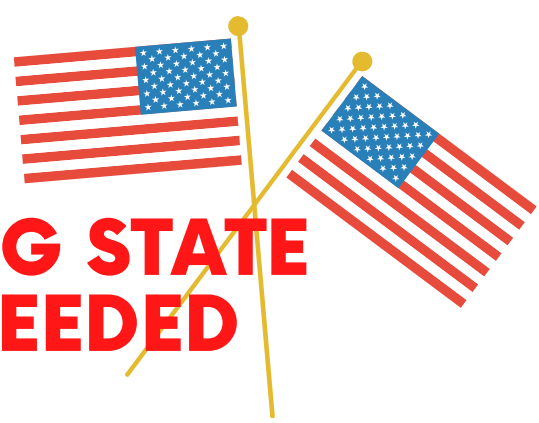

Defense of America

In a poll which questioned Americans on whether they would defend the country from a Russian attack, 52% affiliated with the diverse Democratic Party said they would flee America, 68% of Republicans said they would defend the country.

-Data from Quinnipiac University Poll

A RETURN TO STRONG STATE SOVEREIGNTY IS NEEDED

FEDERAL POWER OVER MATTERS PERTAINING TO THE MORALS AND CULTURES OF THE STATES SHOULD BE LIMITED

The recent decision by the U.S. Supreme Court in overturning Roe V. Wade was a much needed step to bring about a greater moral integrity in our nation and to defend our Christian principles, but it would not have been needed if the Supreme Court had never passed Roe V. Wade to begin with. The Court has also upheld other fundamental rights in recent history, such as cases pertaining to prayer and gun rights, though this is fundamentally a temporary moment in time in which the White Christian can be shielded from the Left-Wing Agenda or Cultural-Marxist Agenda. It is only a matter of time until the changing demographics of America ensure that the members of the Court are rapidly replaced with Justices who are unsympathetic or outright hostile to White Christian values.

THE KNIGHTS PARTY SUPPORTS INCREASED STATES' RIGHTS BECAUSE...

- Demographic changes are causing America to no longer be a nation united by one common culture and ancestry, but a mixed bag of cultures or peoples that seek to use Congress as a means to enforce non-Christian and non-White values onto the entire country.
- It would provide states the autonomy needed to defend the public school and state university system from ideas or theories such as Critical Race Theory that want to undermine the American Identity.
- It would ensure that states can express the White Christian values that are representative of the people that actually live in those states, not those that abuse the power of Congress.

"We can call it Cultural Marxism, but at the end of the day, we experience it on a day to day basis, by that I mean a minute by minute, second by second basis. It's political correctness and it's multiculturalism."

-Andrew Breitbart, Founder of Breitbart.com

Passing away in 2012, he did not witness Cultural Marxism reaching the peak it has today, such as transgender children, child drag-queens, or outright hatred towards White Christian values and the teaching of Critical Race Theory.

THE FRACTURING OF AMERICA, OR BALKANIZATION, IS INEVITABLE IF THIS DOES NOT OCCUR

History presents example after example of what happens to a country when the dominant group finds itself in competition or conflict with other groups within the country. The inevitable result that occurs, if the groups are not allowed increased autonomy from each other, or that a strong system of localism is established, is that the country fractures into multiple more racially or culturally homogenous countries. With Austria-Hungary, the Ottoman Empire, and Yugoslavia serving as examples. Even more importantly though, are the modern day racial or ethnic conflicts which could be resolved through increased localism or states' rights, countries such as India, Nigeria, Myanmar, or even the United States that has been experiencing consistent race riots ever since the Civil Rights Era to the now popularly named Black Lives Matter movement would be benefited.
